Numb. 7085.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday April 22. to Tuesday April 25. 1732.

Petersbourg, April 1, O. S.

COUNT Gallowin, who was the Ruſſian Miniſter in Sweden, arrived here the 28th of laſt Month. He is one of the Members of the new Commiſſion that are examining the Affairs of the Admiralty.

Stockholm, April 5, O. S. M. Funk, upper Maſter of the Ceremonies, has obtained his Swediſh Majeſty's Conſent to reſign his Poſt to M. Cronſtrom, upon Condition that his Son, who is now upon his Travels, ſhould ſucceed M. Cronſtrom as under Maſter of the Ceremonies, and M. Broman is appointed to officiate during his Abſence. M. Beſtuchef, Miniſter from the Czarina, arrived here the 1ſt Inſtant, and has notified his Arrival to all the Foreign Miniſters.

Copenhagen, April 26, N. S. The King of Denmark's Departure for Norway is deferred, and ſome here begin to think that the Voyage will not take Place this Summer, though the neceſſary Orders for that Expedition were given, and the Preparations made with all diligence. Some are of Opinion that Prince William of Heſſe intending to come hither in his Way to Stockholm, the King only tarries a while to receive and entertain his Highneſs.

Hague, May 2, N. S. The Advices concerning the Death of the Elector of Mentz have been various here for ſome Days, but the Palatine Miniſter was informed Yeſterday from his Court of the Certainty of it, and that he died on the 18th Inſtant at Breſlaw, not the 10th as it was firſt reported. After many Conferences between Count Sinzendorff and the Deputies of the States to adjuſt the Reimburſement of Six Millions of Florins due to this Country upon the Security of the Tolls on the Schelde, M. Proly a Banker of Antwerp is arrived here with the neceſſary Credit for that Reimburſement, which is to be made within a Year.

St. James's, April 24.

This Day M. de Thom, Envoy Extraordinary from the Duke of Saxe Gotha, had his firſt private Audience of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales; to which he was introduced by Sir Clement Cottrell, Kt. Maſter of the Ceremonies.

He had afterwards a private Audience of his Royal Highneſs the Duke; to which he was introduced by the Maſter of the Ceremonies.

General Poſt-Office, London, April 24, 1732.

Whereas the Poſt Boy bringing the Briſtol and Glouceſter Mails to London, was ſet upon and robbed by a ſingle Perſon on Foot, between Two and Three a Clock this Morning, two Miles before he came to Hounſlow:

The Poſt Maſter General thinks proper to make it publicky known, that whoever ſhall apprehend the Perſon who committed this Robbery, will upon his Conviction be intitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, beſides the Reward by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen. Or if any one Accomplice in the ſaid Robbery, ſhall make a Diſcovery of the Perſon who committed the Fact, ſuch Accomplice will be intitled to the ſaid Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and alſo have the King's moſt gracious Pardon.

The Perſon who committed the Robbery was mask'd, and is deſcribed to be a little Man in a whitiſh Shag Coat, with black Stockings, and ſeem'd to have a Wig on.

He carried off the following Bags.
